Restriction to one of the following inventions is required under 35 U.S.C. 121:

- I. Claims 1-23, 28-35, 40-44, 49-51 and 58, drawn to constructs comprising Agrobacterium-derived conditionally lethal oncogenes and regulatable promoters, methods for their use to select transformed plants and/or remove them from the environment, and the resultant plants, classified in class 800, subclass 290, for example.
- II. Claims 24-27, 36-39, 45-48, and 52-55, drawn to transformed high oleic acid Brassica plants including a particular cultivar, classified in class 800, subclass 306, for example.
- III. Claims 56-57, drawn to a method of culturing transformed Brassica cells in a particular medium, classified in class 435, subclass 430.1, for example.

The inventions are independent or distinct, each from the other because:

Inventions I, II and III are unrelated. Inventions are unrelated if it can be shown that they are not disclosed as capable of use together and they have different designs, modes of operation, and effects (MPEP § 802.01 and § 806.06). In the instant case, the different inventions have different modes of operation, designs and effects.

The invention of Group I involves Agrobacterium-derived oncogenes, regulatable promoters, methods of promoter induction, and methods of visually identifying cell proliferation phenotypes, each not required by any other group.

The invention of Group II involves particular Brassica genotypes, including high oleic acid genotypes or a particular cultivar with a particular allele at every locus, not required by Group I; methods for Brassica transformation and regeneration not required by Group I; and conditionally lethal oncogenes not required by Group III.

The invention of Group III involves methods for Brassica transformation and regeneration not required by Group I. Furthermore, the invention of Group III involves a multitude of transgenes not required by Groups I or II, including transgenes which alter oil profile, and does not require the oncogenes required by Groups I or II.

Because these inventions are independent or distinct for the reasons given above and have acquired a separate status in the art because of their recognized divergent subject matter, classification, and fields of search, restriction for examination purposes as indicated is proper.

Applicant is reminded that upon the cancellation of claims to a non-elected invention, the inventorship must be amended in compliance with 37 CFR 1.48(b) if one or more of the currently named inventors is no longer an inventor of at least one claim remaining in the application. Any amendment of inventorship must be accompanied by a request under 37 CFR 1.48(b) and by the fee required under 37 CFR 1.17(i).

Applicant is advised that the reply to this requirement to be complete must include (i) an election of a species or invention to be examined even though the requirement be traversed (37 CFR 1.143) and (ii) identification of the claims encompassing the elected invention.

The election of an invention or species may be made with or without traverse. To reserve a right to petition, the election must be made with traverse. If the reply does not distinctly and specifically point out supposed errors in the restriction requirement, the election shall be treated as an election without traverse.

Should applicant traverse on the ground that the inventions or species are not patentably distinct, applicant should submit evidence or identify such evidence now of record showing the inventions or species to be obvious variants or clearly admit on the record that this is the case. In either instance, if the examiner finds one of the inventions unpatentable over the prior art, the evidence or admission may be used in a rejection under 35 U.S.C.103(a) of the other invention.

Any inquiry concerning this communication or earlier communications from the examiner should be directed to David T. Fox whose telephone number is 571-272-0795. The examiner can normally be reached on Monday through Friday from 10:30AM to 7:00PM.
